STOCK & OPTION SOLUTIONS, INC. ANNOUNCES PATRICIA BOEPPLE AS NEW SR. DIRECTOR, BEST PRACTICES AND RISK MANAGEMENT

Campbell, California, February 27, 2019 - Stock & Option Solutions, Inc., the leading provider of outsourced equity plan administration services, announces the addition of Patricia Boepple as Sr. Director of Best Practices and Risk Management.

Over a 30-year career Trish has seen and done it all; building and optimizing several Fortune 500 equity admin departments on the issuer side; designing and implementing scalable best practices on the services side and shaping and influencing industry associations in founder roles. Trish is a member on the CEPI Advisory Board. Trish was one of the original members of the Stock Forum, the precursor to ESSA and then NASPP. She was a founding member of the NASPP and of Global Equity Organization (GEO). Trish was a member of the Society of Corporate Secretaries & Governance Professionals for 26 years.

Stock & Option Solutions will leverage Trish's wisdom and experience in its continued pursuit of excellence in equity plan administration. In addition to providing guidance and expertise to clients and team members, Trish's primary responsibility will be to implement best practice processes as means to an end of managing risk for our clients' core equity challenges and allowing Stock & Option Solutions to continue delivering high-touch quality service.

"We're thrilled to add Trish Boepple to the team; because she is the ultimate Team Player! Throughout her decorated career Trish has always chased excellence. She brings passion and deep knowledge of all things equity; which will accelerate our design and implementation of best practices for our customers and the entire industry," says Barrett Scott, CEO of Stock & Option Solutions.
