Stock & Option Solutions Hosts SOS Educational Webcast: The Mod Squad: A Guide to Modification Accounting for Stock Plan Professionals

Webcast to give insight on how to make modification accounting for share-based compensation work for you, not against you

Campbell, California, May 13th, 2013 - Stock & Option Solutions (SOS), a leading provider of stock plan administration, management and consulting services, today announced their upcoming webcast, The Mod Squad: A Guide to Modification Accounting for Stock Plan Professionals scheduled for May 30th, 2013 at 11am PT.

In the world of equity compensation, modification accounting can be triggered for numerous reasons. For stock plan professionals, the requirements stemming from grant modifications are complex and numerous, and ultimately the manner in which they need to handle those can cause confusion and error. Elizabeth Dodge of SOS joins Raul Fajardo of Qualcomm and Kevin Haasan of PwC in this session that will define modification accounting and what triggers it. They will also cover methods for handling some modification in various stock plan systems, the different types of modifications under ASC 718, and more. Best of all- it's in plain English!

Elizabeth Dodge of SOS said, "We get questions from clients nearly every day on grant modifications. Repricings, extensions of grace period, accelerations at termination, changes to performance criteria, the list goes on and on. In our experience it is one of the least understood areas of accounting for equity compensation."

This webcast will provide you with processes and spreadsheet workarounds to help you handle modifications more easily. Learn the ins and outs from experts, and get comfortable with modification accounting in this 60 minute session.
